

Pride Central and the Residence Charity Committee Present

Down N' Dirty 2012
Photo Scavenger Hunt
House vs. House Edition

The Rules

1. The most important rule of them ALL. Before you can even start going on the hunt, all Houses absolutely must submit a minimum of 15 canned goods (or a minimum amount equal to 50% of your house). These cans will be collected on Sunday, March 26th, 2012.
2. The items on this scavenger hunt can NOT be started or completed till March 26th, 2012 when your entry fee is submitted,
3. All houses have 1 week from the start date to complete as many tasks on this list as possible. While you don't have to do all of them, the more you do, the more points you get.
4. All events must be documented with PHOTO evidence. Once you complete an event, email it to pridecentral@lusu.ca with your house name, and the event in the subject line.
5. If you are planning on doing a large scale event, you need to contact one of the organizers of this scavenger hunt to be witness.
6. If you record an event on video, please upload it to any video sharing website and email the link to pridecentral@lusu.ca
7. Be fair! Don't try and sabotage another house's efforts. If you do, you'll lose points from your house.
8. Try something new! Some items may be shocking and too much for you to handle, but deflate your ego and have some fun!
9. All items on this list are meant to be done as a team; it's not as much fun alone!
10. And the most important rule of them ALL...again, is to have fun!

Prizing and Winners

1. Prizes will be awarded for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place.
 - a. To win, the object is to complete the most events in the time span given. Each event has an associated point value, all of which vary based on the difficulty of the event.
 - b. At the end of the competition, points will be added up to determine the top 3 houses, who will receive prizes.
 - c. The prizes are pretty bad ass, you definitely want to win them.
2. House points will be awarded! Participation in the event itself will win you some points
3. There is a prize for the house that collects the MOST canned goods
4. Individual prizes will be given out to a person in each house who has displayed outstanding participation in this event. These are nominated prizes.
